David Charles Robinson
Lecturer, Department of History, Texas State University

601 University Drive, San Marcos, TX 78667
Email: dcr27@txstate.edu Office: 512-245-2142 Mobil: 210-313-4446

Education

2022, MA, Public History Concentration, Department of History, Texas State University, Masters' Thesis: A Test Failed: (Mis)use of the Army General Classification Test and the Army Ground Forces Command in World War II.

1994, BA, Magna Cum Laude, Department of English, Philosophy Minor, Southwest Texas State University,

University Employment

2023 – Present, Lecturer, Department of History, Texas State University

Relevant Professional Experience

2019 – 2022, Instructional Assistant, Department of History, Texas State University
2021, Public History Internship, Texas Department of Transportation History Office, Cultural Resources Division
1993-1994, Writing Center Tutor, Department of English, Southwest Texas State University

Publications

Public History Projects

Articles:

2020, "Sports Breaks Down All Barriers: High School Sports Integration in San Marcos, Texas." Intersect: Perspectives in Texas Public History, Online Journal from the Center for Texas Public History, Department of History, Texas State University

Presentations:

2020, "Captain Charles F. Millett, Biography," Video Produced for Public History Project for the Millett Opera House, Center for Texas Public History, Texas State University

Teaching

Courses Taught:

United States History to 1877, Survey

United States History 1377 to Present, Survey
University Seminar

Service to the Department

2023-2024, Bobcat Day, Faculty Representative
2023-2024, College of Liberal Arts Bobcat Welcome Event, Faculty Representative

Service to the Community

2024, Meals on Wheels Volunteer, Bulverde Senior Activity Center
2012-2019, Volunteer, United Way Grant Review Process, United Way of Comal County
1996-1997, Youth Basketball Coach, New Braunfels Youth Sports Association

Professional Affiliations – Current Memberships

American Historical Association
Society for Military History
The Association for Gravestone Studies
Central European History Society

Military Service:

1981 – 1989, United States Air Force, Personnel Specialist, Lackland AFB, TX; Keesler AFB, MS; Spangdahlem AB, West Germany; Randolph AFB TX, Honorable Discharge

Other Professional Experience:

1987-Present, Sports Television Broadcast Production – Various positions with Fox Sports, ESPN, CBS, NBC, Bally Sports – Extensive experience in NBA, MLB, NCAA Football and Basketball, As MLB and NBA Lead Producer duties included: editorial and commercial format preparation, writing copy, coordination of all preproduction elements and broadcast enhancements and real-time communication and coordination with event, venue, network and broadcast personnel including announcers