Carlos S. Markham

Adjunct Professor of Political Science
(210) 618-6019 • carlosmarkham@hotmail.com

EDUCATION

Georgetown University
Master of Policy Management — 2013, GPA: 3.83

Troy State University
Master of International Relations — 1999: GPA: 3.89

Park University
Bachelor of Management — 1995 GPA: 3.84

ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Texas State University - August 2026 - Present
Adjunct Faculty, Department of Political Science

- Instructor for 2310, Principles of American Government

Texas A&M University–San Antonio, August 2025 – Present
Adjunct Faculty, Department of Criminology & Political Science

● Instructor for Federal Government (GOVT 2305) and Texas Government (GOVT 2306).

● Teach undergraduate courses in political science, including the American political system, political institutions, and public policy.

● Design and implement course syllabi, lectures, and assessments aligned with departmental learning outcomes.

San Antonio College, August 2023 – May 2026
Adjunct Faculty, Department of Public Policy & Service (PP&S)

● Instructor for Federal Government (GOVT 2305) and Texas

Government (GOVT 2306).

● Lead in-person courses with a focus on political behavior, constitutional foundations, intergovernmental relations, and Texas political culture.

● Employ evidence-based teaching practices supporting first-generation, nontraditional, and military-affiliated students.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Special Agent, Defense Criminal Investigative Service (DCIS), U.S. Department of Defense | 2001 – 2021

● Conducted high-level criminal and counterintelligence investigations requiring extensive knowledge of federal law, interagency policy, and U.S. government structures.

● Collaborated with federal prosecutors, law enforcement agencies, and military leadership on national security, procurement fraud, and policy enforcement cases.

Special Agent, Office of Special Investigations (OSI), U.S. Air Force | 1996 – 2001

● Led criminal and counterintelligence operations domestically and internationally.

● Applied knowledge of foreign policy, Status of Forces Agreements, international law, and host-nation legal constraints.

● Coordinated with international partners on U.S. policy and security matters.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE

● Advisory Member, Congressional Subcommittee Collaboration (via Air Force Association)

● Provided policy analysis and operational recommendations for Air Force-related legislative matters.