Additional Comments: This responsibility is one that I initiated in an attempt to garner continuous, ongoing feedback from our undergraduate students concerning various aspects of our department as a whole. Using survey information dispersed to Communication Studies majors and minors, I collect and organize information in regards to their perceptions of:
- Instructor satisfaction based on modality
- Coursework satisfaction concerning what classes we offer
- Student organization advertising and its effectiveness
- Potential involvement opportunities that students would like to see from our department

Speaker, Utility of Communication Series- Communication Studies Department. (2024).

Additional Comments: I started this series in 2023 so it is fairly new, but I make of point of coordinating and presenting a special "Utility of Communication" event for Comm 1310 students each semester. In doing so, I further emphasize and educate students on how Communication Studies is applicable in every aspect of their lives. This series works well as a parallel to my efforts as the Chair of the Outreach and Promotion Committee.
