TEXAS STATE VITA

Lynnie Lee
Lml183@txstate.edu / 713-815-5583

I. Academic/Professional Background

A. Lynnie Lee - Graduate Teaching Assistant (Department of English)

B. Educational Background

Texas State University: Anticipated Graduation of Spring 2026
- M.A. in Rhetoric and Composition
- Relevant Coursework: Compositional Pedagogy, Contemporary Composition Theory

University of Texas at Austin: Fall 2020 – Spring 2024
- B.A. in Rhetoric & Writing
- Minor in Chinese, Radio-Television-Film
- Writing Consultant and Front Desk at University Writing Center 2022-2024

II. TEACHING

Texas State University – San Marcos, Tx: August 2024-Spring 2025
Instructional Assistant of a Sophomore-Level Literature Course (Fall 2024)
● Instructing and lesson-planning literature courses for over 100 students
● Grading writing assignments through Canvas LMS with quality feedback
● Communicating and building relationships with students regarding course concerns

Writing Consultant – Austin, Tx: 2022-2024
● Admitted to RHE368C: Writing Center Internship course – developing consultant techniques
● Assisted over 200 students through non-directive and non-evaluative methods
● Communicating through Slack research and writing projects used to assist UWC

III. SCHOLARLY/CREATIVE

Popular Culture Association Conference
● Paper proposal accepted at 2025 PCA Conference
● Featured paper: How Online Communities Impact Media: The Power of Fandom

Texas Dragon/Lion Dance Team – Austin, Tx: October 2023-Present
Member
● Educating Texas community of the art, culture, and practice of dragon/lion dance
● Planning and organizing end-of-year banquet consisting of 50 members
● Arranging performances consisting of percussion, martial and stamina skills

Texas Vietnamese Student Association – Austin, Tx: August 2023 – May 2024

Media Officer

- Organized weekly video projects including scripting, storyboarding, and video editing
- Managed time delightedly with projects and events, promoting Vietnamese culture
- Representing leader for over 200 students within the organization
- Achieved 114,000 views and most viewed video on Texas VSA YouTube channel