Dr. Amanda K. Graham

Texas State University
College of Applied Arts
School of Criminal Justice & Criminology
(512) 245-3587
akg79@txstate.edu

Institutions of Higher Education Attended

PHD, Univ of Cincinnati Main Campus.

MS, Univ of Nebraska at Omaha.

BA, Univ of Nebraska - Lincoln.

Previous Teaching Positions

Associate Professor, Georgia Southern University. (August 2023 - May 2024).

Graduate Program Coordinator, Georgia Southern University. (January 2022 - May 2024).

Assistant Professor, Georgia Southern University. (August 2019 - August 2023).

Significant Professional Works

Refereed Journal Articles

Somers, L. J., Graham, A. (2026). Motivations and Likelihood of the Public to Consider a Career in Policing. Policing: An International Journal, 49(1), 122-138.

Somers, L. J., Graham, A. (in press). Assessing Police Recruit Disqualifiers: Public Attitudes Toward Drug Use, Mental Illness, Education, and Criminal Offending. Journal of Police and Criminal Psychology.