Amelia L. Slover

San Marcos, Texas • amelia@txstate.edu • 512-245-2285

Education

M.A. in Applied Philosophy & Ethics — Texas State University, 2024

B.S. in Business Administration — Southern New Hampshire University, 2021

Concentration: Financial Accounting

Teaching Experience

Lecturer, Philosophy

Texas State University, August 2025 – Present

Courses Taught:

- PHIL 1305: Introduction to Philosophy & Critical Thinking

Conference Presentations

"In Search of a Unifying Truth: A Defense of Educating for Morality in Public Schools"

Presented at the 2024 Phi Sigma Tau Student Symposium, Texas State University

Fellowships

Fellow, Salzburg Global Seminar | Salzburg, Austria

Session 69 – Global Citizenship: At Home and In the World | May 2015

- Selected into a global cohort of emerging leaders to analyze ethical responsibilities of global citizenship.
- Collaborated on cross-cultural action plans addressing global citizenship education and community impact.
- Engaged in intensive, peer-led working groups to develop scalable solutions for local and global civic challenges.

University Service & Experience

- Treasurer for Minorities and Philosophy (MAP) student organization from 2023-2024
- Serves regularly on panels for the Philosophy Dialogue Series
- TXST Commencement Volunteer, 2021 to Present
- TXST Bobcat Build Volunteer, 2022-2023
- President of Phi Sigma Tau, National Philosophy Honors Society, California State University Bakersfield Chapter, 2015-2016
- Member, Alpha Chi, National Honors Society
- 2015 recipient of the Who's Who Among College Students award at California State University, Bakersfield