Jingle Shi

PhD Student-Professor | Department of Criminal Justice & Criminology
Texas State University

j_s755@txstate.edu

Education

Ph.D. in Criminal Justice & Criminology (in progress)
Texas State University

M.A. in Criminal Justice, 2021
Texas State University

B.A. in Criminal Justice, Minor in Sociology, 2016
Texas State University

Dean's List, 2018–2022

Academic Appointments

PhD Lecturer, Department of Criminal Justice & Criminology, Texas State University (2025–)

Teaching Experience

Lecturer:

Comparative Criminal Justice, Texas State University, Fall 2025 – Fall 2026

Guest Speaker:

Occupational Crime, Texas State University, Spring 2025

Comparative Criminal Justice, Texas State University, Spring 2025

Research in Progress

International Student Perceptions on Gun Violence, with Dr. Amanda Graham, Dr. Sean P Roche, Dr. Logan Somers, & Dr. Luzi Shi

Hispanic Community Beliefs on Firearm as Protection

with Dr. Amanda Graham, Dr. Sean P Roche & Dr. Logan Somers

Poster Presentation

Police Perceptions among LGBTQ+ Communities,

with George G. Garza

Professional Development

Instructor, Texas Defensive Academy (2018–present)

Event Organizer, Crisis Negotiation Competition & Seminar (2022-present)

Skills & Training

Certificate in Intelligence Analysis

ESRI Geographic Information System (GIS) Certificate

Quantitative analysis: SPSS, R