C. Directed Student Learning (i.e. theses, dissertations, exit committees, etc.):

Member, Master's Thesis, "Testing Security of Patient Portals Using Theory of Planned Behavior", Status: Proposal. (August 2021 - Present). Health Information Managemet, Texas State University.
Student(s): Adimora Eze, Graduate, MHIM.

Member, Master's Thesis, "USING THE HEALTH BELIEF MODEL TO PREDICT AN INDIVIDUAL'S WILLINGNESS TO MAKE HEALTH DECISIONS BASED ON THE RESULTS OF GENETIC TESTING", Status: Completed. (June 2019 - May 2020). Health Information Management, Texas State University.
Student(s): Christina Turrietta, Graduate, MHIM.

Member, Master's Thesis, "CYBERANALYTICS: USING DECISION TREES TO PROVIDE CLINICAL DECISION SUPPORT", Status: Completed. (August 1, 2018 - April 8, 2019). Health Information Management, Texas State University.
Student(s): Elena Toth, Graduate, MHIM.
Toth Thesis Final April 2019-1.pdf
Additional Comments: A scholarly journal article was submitted in November 2019 to the Decision Support Systems Journal. In January 2020, authors received notification of invitation to revise and resubmit.

Member, Master's Thesis, "HEALTH INFORMATION MANAGEMENT REIMAGINED: ASSESSING CURRENT PROFESSIONAL SKILLS AND INDUSTRY DEMAND", Status: Completed. (August 1, 2018 - March 27, 2019). Health Information Management, Texas State University.
Student(s): Kim Beesley, Graduate, MHIM.
Beesley Thesis Final 3-27-19-1.pdf
Additional Comments: A scholarly journal article has been submitted and is under review with Perspectives in Health Information Management.

Member, Master's Thesis, "EXAMINING INDIVIDUAL TRANSITION FROM HEALTHCARE TO INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY ROLES USING THE THEORY OF PLANNED", Status: Completed. (August 1, 2018 - March 24, 2019). Health Information Management, Texas State University.
Student(s): Rebecca Johnston, Graduate, MHIM.
Johnston Thesis 3-24-19 Final-1.pdf
Additional Comments: A scholarly journal article has been submitted and is under review with Perspectives in Health Information Management.

D. Courses Prepared and Curriculum Development:

HIM 2360 Medical Terminology, First Time Course Preparation. Taught: July 2019 - December 2019.

Additional Comments: A large section of HIM 2360 campus course was assigned to me in Fall 2019. This was a major course preparation. I had taught this course many years ago in the summer session.

HIM 4364 Classifications, Nomenclature and Reimbursement, First Time Course Preparation, Instructor. Taught: September 1998 - December 2008.

HIM 3464 Nosology, First Time Course Preparation, Instructor. Taught: January 1998 - May 2008.

HIM 4283 Health Information Management Seminar, First Time Course Preparation, Instructor. Taught: January 1998 - May 2000.

HIm 4385 Health Information Management Practicum, First Time Course Preparation, Instructor. Taught: September 1995 - May 2000.

HIM 3220 Professional Practice Aspects of HIM, First Time Course Preparation, Instructor. Taught: September 1999 - December 1999.

Additional Comments: Team taught - I was one of three faculty teaching this course in the Fall Semester of 1999.

HIM 4389 Health Information Management Internship II, First Time Course Preparation, Instructor. Taught: January 1998 - December 1998.

HIM 4345 Health Information Systems Management, First Time Course Preparation, Instructor. Taught: September 1995 - December 1997.

HIM 4345 Lab Sections for Health Information Systems Management, First Time Course Preparation, Instructor. Taught: September 1995 - December 1997.

HIM 5363 Health Data Content, First Time Course Preparation, Texas State University. Taught: January 2015 - August 2015.

Additional Comments: Online graduate course was designed in spring and summer of 2015. Course was taught for the first time in Fall 2015.

HIM 3367 Disease and Medical Science I, First Time Course Preparation, Texas State University. Taught: September 1999 - December 2014.

HIM 3363 Introduction and Technical Aspects of Health Information Management, First Time Course Preparation, Texas State University. Taught: September 1995 - December 2014.

HIM 3368 Disease and Medical Science I, First Time Course Preparation, Texas State University. Taught: January 2000 - May 2014.

HIM 3380 Quality Improvement Regulations and Procedures for HIM, First Time Course Preparation, Texas State University. Taught: September 1995 - May 2014.

HIM 5363, Revise Existing Course, Texas State University. Taught: June 2019 - August 2019.

HIM5363_Syllabus_Fall2019-1.pdf

Additional Comments: Over the summer of 2019, I worked with Sean Taylor, an instructional designer to overhaul the HIM 5363 online graduate course. This was a major course revision. No stiped was paid for this work. It was a commitment on my part to ensure the work was done with high quality ahead of the Fall 2019 semester. Course was implemented in the Fall 2019 semester.

E. Teaching Grants and Contracts

3. Funded Internal Teaching Grants and Contracts:

Moczygemba, Jacqueline (Principal). Grant for Instructional Technology, Office of Instructional Technologies Support, Texas State University, Institutional (Higher Ed). (Submitted: September 1, 2007). Grant.

Moczygemba, Jacqueline (Principal). Comprehensive College Initiative: HIM Computer Lab Replacement, Institutional (Higher Ed). (Funded: 2014). Grant.

Additional Comments: – Spring 2014 This proposal was funded in Spring 2014 to replace all of the existing computers in the HIM special purpose computer lab. The outcome of this replacement was standardization of the computer models being used in the lab and the ability to maximize special use software (Virtual Lab) as it continues to be made available for course support.

Moczygemba, Jacqueline (Principal). Improving Computer Acccess and Applications for HIM Students, Institutional (Higher Ed). (Funded: April 1999). Grant.

Additional Comments: I was the third author on this technology proposal which was funded by the Academic Computing Committee in April 1999. This funding allowed the HIM Program to purchase three IBM/PC computers, a 10 user license for Pervasive SQL, and four different HIM software applications from Softmed/HIS.

4. Submitted, but not Funded, Internal Teaching Grants and Contracts:

Moczygemba, Jacqueline (Principal). Comprehensive College Initiative: HIM Computer Lab Replacement, Texas State University, $28,364.76. (Submitted: October 27, 2017). Grant.

Management / Executive Development, Weekly Meetings with new BSHIM Program Director, Texas State University. Round Rock, TX, United States. 2. (January 18, 2022 - July 31, 2022).

Additional Comments: This narrative is added to provide clarity to teaching (professional development) related activities in spring 2022 for which "no release time" was given. During this semester, weekly meetings were held with Dr. Danette Myers who started her role as BSHIM Program Director on January 1, 2022. The purpose of the meetings was to educate, develop and mentor Dr. Myers in completing the annual program assessment report (APAR) for our program accrediting body, the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). On an annual basis, CAHIIM monitors program performance, outcomes and changes for continuous quality improvement. Per CAHIIM - to maintain Continuing Accreditation status, CAHIIM Accredited programs are required to provide an Annual Program Assessment Report (APAR) using the APAR Online System. The importance of completing the APAR is not only that it is required by CAHIIM Accreditation Standards, but also provides fundamental data useful to each program, administration, students and the public.

In addition to weekly meetings, many hours were spent with data collection, review and analysis. One example of a time intensive activity is researching past graduates utilizing LinkedIn and email outreach to determine student outcomes such as employment or graduate school. Another example is utilizing Qualtrics to survey the past grads on the quality of the BSHIM program he/she completed. Another Qualtrics survey is sent to preceptors/employers of our BSHIM graduates to determine the quality of preparedness for the HIM workforce. Each Qualtrics survey is launched early in the semester with numerous follow-up emails to increase the response rate. Another time intensive activity is the actual writing of the report in the CAHIIM portal. There are major sections in the CAHIIM report which include the program profile, curriculum, faculty, admission enrollment, certification, certificate of the degree and goals. Each section requires detailed oversight to ensure accuracy, completeness of the data and timely reporting. Each section was reviewed at least 3-5 times before the report was submitted in April.

In summary, the time spent in this activity during the spring semester was equal to, if not great than teaching a 3 hour credit course. I wish to thank the HIM Personnel Committee for their thoughtful review of this activity. The 2022 APAR report is under the control of Dr. Myers and Dr. Gibbs if further review is desired.

Student Accomplishments:

Scholarship:

Mentor, HIMSS Foundation Undergraduate Scholarship. Status: Completed. (December 15, 2021). Health Information Management, Texas State University.
Student(s): Melisa Jaramillo-Bailon, Undergraduate, BSHIM.

Additional Comments: Melisa Jaramillo-Bailon was notified this month that she is the recipient of the 2022 HIMSS Foundation Undergraduate Scholarship which she applied for in 2021. One scholarship (across the U.S.) is given to an Undergraduate and one to a Master's student enrolled in a program related to the healthcare information and technology field. In addition to the $5,000 scholarship award, the recipient will also receive a trip to the HIMSS Global Health Conference and Exhibition.
It was an honor and pleasure to mentor Melisa two years ago while she enrolled in my medical terminology course. After reviewing all majors, she chose the BSHIM program. We are so happy she did! It is exciting to see a TXST Bobcat awarded this esteemed scholarship.

Additional Comments: Assisted the chair of the department with securing two speakers.

Member, HIM Search Committee - Clinical Faculty. (October 2022 - December 2022).

APAR Training. (January 2022 - July 2022).

Additional Comments: This narrative is added to provide clarity to service (professional development) related activities in spring 2022 for which "no release time" was given. During this semester, weekly meetings were held with Dr. Danette Myers who started her role as BSHIM Program Director on January 1, 2022. The purpose of the meetings was to educate, develop and mentor Dr. Myers in completing the annual program assessment report (APAR) for our program accrediting body, the Commission on Accreditation for Health Informatics and Information Management Education (CAHIIM). On an annual basis, CAHIIM monitors program performance, outcomes and changes for continuous quality improvement. Per CAHIIM - to maintain Continuing Accreditation status, CAHIIM Accredited programs are required to provide an Annual Program Assessment Report (APAR) using the APAR Online System. The importance of completing the APAR is not only that it is required by CAHIIM Accreditation Standards, but also provides fundamental data useful to each program, administration, students and the public.

In addition to weekly meetings, many hours were spent with data collection, review and analysis. One example of a time intensive activity is researching past graduates utilizing LinkedIn and email outreach to determine student outcomes such as employment or graduate school. Another example is utilizing Qualtrics to survey the past grads on the quality of the BSHIM program he/she completed. Another Qualtrics survey is sent to preceptors/employers of our BSHIM graduates to determine the quality of preparedness for the HIM workforce. Each Qualtrics survey is launched early in the semester with numerous follow-up emails to increase the response rate. Another time intensive activity is the actual writing of the report in the CAHIIM portal. There are major sections in the CAHIIM report which include the program profile, curriculum, faculty, admission enrollment, certification, certificate of the degree and goals. Each section requires detailed oversight to ensure accuracy, completeness of the data and timely reporting. Each section was reviewed at least 3-5 times before the report was submitted in April.

In summary, the time spent in this activity during the spring semester was equal to, if not great than teaching a 3 hour credit course. I wish to thank the HIM Personnel Committee for their thoughtful review of this activity. The 2022 APAR report is under the control of Dr. Myers and Dr. Gibbs if further review is desired.

Member, HIM Search Committee NTL Faculty Position. (February 1, 2022 - May 31, 2022).

Additional Comments: This was a successful HIM search committee that resulted in the hiring of Ms. Deborah Howard as a NTL faculty member in the department.

Undergraduate Advisor, BSHIM Program Director. (August 2013 - December 2021).

Additional Comments: The role of BSHIM Program Director in a CAHIIM accredited program requires a 25% workload release.
