Additional Comments: My work as a member of the San Marcos City Council should not be considered service. It should be considered as an example of Scholarly/Creative Activity. I have served on the San Marcos City Council for over thirteen years. I took part in discussions and votes on budgets, re-zoning, the city's comprehensive plan, multi-modal transportation issues among others. I also served on a number of city council committees including budget, La Cima, and Criminal Justice Reform. I used my knowledge as a political scientist constantly as a member of the city council. Thank you.
